

I support the delegation of authority for area code changes to the individual states. I believe that the states are in a better position to determine the area code boundaries for their communities.

I would urge the commission to vote for the change.